

Services, Support, and Opportunities for F2Fs and FVAOs
 under the Family Voices NCFPP: June 1, 2016 to May 31, 2019

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

- Quarterly Regional F2F Calls
(check-ins, report outs, sharing, and specific support)
- Monthly FVAO Calls
(topic-based and policy updates)
- TA & support for required F2F data tracking including Performance Measure 70 worksheets
- F2F and FVAO listservs for sharing and soliciting support
- Individual TA by request
- Ongoing support for enhancing diverse family and youth leadership capacity
- Identification and sharing of best practices in diverse family & youth engagement

INFORMATION, RESOURCES AND MATERIALS

- e-News on relevant topics through weekly Washington Update and other regular e-communications
- Annual custom F2F State Data Reports on request
- Annual Aggregated F2F Data Report
- Various customizable information and tip-sheets
- Updated Family Voices Family Leadership Guide
- Online information and F2F promotion on websites, F2F portal, Facebook, Twitter
- Collection and maintenance of repository of materials

TRAINING AND SUPPORT

- Quarterly webinars on topics to be determined based on input from F2Fs and FVAOs
- Regional in-person Train-the-Trainer course for developing family leadership, especially diverse family leadership, for participation on decision making groups at system level, and follow-up mentoring/support
- Regional in-person training for Title V and other state agency leaders on effectively engaging diverse stakeholders at systems and policy level, and follow-up support
- Additional webinars and in-person trainings at national conferences focused on family leadership development
- Facilitation of a collaborative action team process on family engagement for 4-5 state teams of family organization and Title V staff (years 2 and 3)

OTHER OPPORTUNITIES

- Ongoing input/feedback to FV and NCFPP via Regional F2F Calls, monthly FVAO calls, listserv, surveys, and contact anytime with FV or NCFPP staff
- Annually, feedback on services to F2Fs and FVAOs via survey in February/March
- Input on policy issues affecting CYSHCN
- Participation on various FV initiatives with national partners (AAP, CAHMI, AMCHP, CDC, AUCD, AIM, etc.)
- Opportunities, support, and mentorship for participation with national partners in advisory groups, meetings, projects, and written products.
- National in-person family leadership conference (as funding allows)