This tool was developed to heighten your awareness of how you view clients/patients from culturally and linguistically diverse (CLD) populations.

*There is no answer key; however, you should review responses that you rated 5, 4, and even 3.

- I treat all of my clients with respect for their culture.
- I do not impose my beliefs and value systems on my clients, their family members, or their friends.
- I believe that it is acceptable to use a language other than English in the U.S.
- I accept my clients' decisions as to the degree to which they choose to acculturate into the dominant culture.
- I provide services to clients who are GLBTQ (Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender, or Questioning).
- I am driven to respond to others' insensitive comments or behaviors.
- I do not participate in insensitive comments or behaviors.
- I am aware that the roles of family members may differ within or across culture or families.
- I recognize family members and other designees as decision makers for services and support.
- I respect non-traditional family structures (e.g., divorced parents, same gender parents, grandparents as caretakers).
- I understand the difference between a communication disability and a communication difference.
- I understand that views of the aging process may influence the clients'/families' decision to seek intervention.
- I understand that there are several American English dialects. I recognize that all English speakers use a dialect of English.
