

Disability History Timeline Quiz

1 What major law was passed in 1990 to protect the rights of people with disabilities?

- a. Section 504
- b. Individuals with Disabilities Education Act
- c. Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)
- d. Rehabilitation Act

2 Who was the first student with a significant physical disability to attend UC Berkeley?

- a. Judy Heumann
- b. Justin Dart
- c. Ed Roberts
- d. I. King Jordan

3 What does Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act require?

- a. All schools must hire disabled teachers.
- b. Programs receiving federal money must be accessible.
- c. All students must take disability awareness classes.
- d. Only colleges must be accessible.

4 Where was the first Disability Pride Parade held?

- a. New York City
- b. San Francisco
- c. Chicago
- d. Washington, D.C.

Learn More about Disability History

Disability Social History Project

The Disability Social History Project is a community history project that documents history from the perspective of disabled people. Visit disabilityhistory.org.

A Brief but Spectacular Take on the Disability Rights Movement

This video features disability rights activist Judy Heumann. Watch the video (4:00)

Disability History through Primary Sources

Emerging America has Primary sources from the Library of Congress, Disability History Museum, and other collections to deepen exploration into historical events. Explore their website.

Why Focus on Disability History?

Watch this one-minute video about the importance of disability history.